During our eight years in Albany- Margaret was my closest friend ever.She was a wonderful example of how to live and care for others. I can't say how much I have missed her smiling face and words of encouragement since leaving in 2003 for TN.Keeping in touch at Christmas time was priceless to me.I have kept both Mary Ann and her in my prayers daily.I know she is in heaven with all her beloved ANGELS and only hope she is watching over us all. Lovingly,Mary Drulard.

I will always remember how Margaret prayed so faithfully for our family. What a blessing she has been to so many. I am sure she will continue to intercede for us now that she is in heaven.
