“ I am forever Grateful for my Friendship with You Sheryl....and with Joe. You both have treated me like family since I've known you.....and were even gracious enough to let me be a part of yours when All my family had passed. Joe was the Best Friend, Nice, Funny, Kind, Happy Person we all dream of being. I have learned that any Blessings we get in this lifetime, are to be cherished. For we never know how long we will have those Blessings. You and Nathan were Blessed with the Best God had to offer. Joe will be so missed. If I could, I would bear your pain now, because I love you. But I am praying for God to comfort you and Nathan thru the days and years ahead. I will forever remember that summer at the Beach with just you and Joe. It was your weekend to relax just the two of you, and you let me come down and spend it with ya'll. We had good laughs, and good food, and I thank you so much for that. I will forever remember that Joe cooked me sausage, the best I've ever tasted, and that says alot because my grandfather was a butcher. :) How I wish we could eat one more piece of sausage together, But he is at peace now, and no more pain. I love you, Sheryl & Nathan, God Bless all your Family. Rhonda Shehee
