“ Mrs. Elwood, I was your neighbor in Moultrie, Ga. My name is Art Monk. While trying to find your son I learned much to my sadness that both your son and husband have passed.

It was important to me to reconnect with your son. If you don't mind, please email me at arthurmonk@yahoo.com and tell me about his life.

Again, I am sorry for your losses. I cannot fathom the sense of loss you feel.

Sincerely,

Art Monk

“ I will miss Jay. Since he sold his motorcycles and I sold the Honda business our paths did not cross, unfortunately. I remember many great talks about rides and places he visited while standing on the showroom floor. He was very particular about his bike and would only let me or John the mechanic test ride his bikes. He and I rode together a few times and at first his slow riding pace was frustrating but when we stopped he explained that he just enjoyed the riding and he wasn't in a hurry. He said you missed so much when you rode to fast. Later, I found that to be true. As I stated I will miss Jay but I will not forget him. Vaya Con Dios, my friend

“ Norma,
I am so sorry for your loss. I have fond memories of Jay. I miss seeing the two of you at the hospital cafeteria.

Look to the good memories you shared with him. These memories will help you through.

“ Praying that God will be with you and your family through this transition.

I pause to remember seeing you at the Honda shop with the other GoldWing riders, preparing for the days journey, and I am so thankful that you have made the preparations for this your final journey.

God bless you all.
