“ Marianne always had an open heart and open beach home to me when i was growing up. I got to come to the beach with all the adults and that was the beginning of my love for the ocean. I owe it to her. She and I loved the beach the same. And she was a wonderful life long friend to my mama. Losing her is like losing a part of my childhood. I admired her for living to the fullest as she grew older - her heart remained young. My love to you - John and Felix and to the Carols.

“ *Felix, Carol, John, Carol, and family,
I am so saddened to hear of Mrs. Marbury's passing. She was a fine lady and a shining example of a good, Christian, southern woman. I know you have many memories to warm you heart! I also have many memories as our children grew up together through the years. Those memories bring a smile to my face. My thoughts and prayers are with you all!*
