“ Joanne, Delle, Mac III, and all of Mac's family, my deepest sympathies to you and to the others who called Mac family or friend. He was a blessing to me in the short time that I knew him. The first time I met him in 2006 he charged Mimi and me to be a blessing to each other. We both remembered that and in all we did tried to live up to Mac's expectation of us. I pass that on and ask each of you to be a blessing to whomever is closest to you. Farewell and Godspeed Mac, a live well lived. Jerry Maloney.

“ Joann I was saddened to learn about Mac I know he had struggled with his health for several years. He was a loveable person and I always loved him because Luke Simmons thought so much of him and even though I was with him very little I felt I knew him because of Luke. I will be thinking of you in the days ahead. Wish I were in Albany to help you God bless and keep you at peace Bettye Bryan Pate “ Dr. McKemie was my dentist, as well as my parents when we moved to Albany back in the 60's and remained my dentist until he retired, I moved away from Albany in 73, but I drove back every 6 months to Dr McKemie, he was the only dentist that didn't scare me, he always made me comfortable. He had such a sweet spirit and he will truly be missed. To Mrs McKemie, Delle and the rest of the family may your memories and the God above give you peace during this sad time. Sincerely, Cynthia Moore and Ophelia Shepard

“ Delle, your dad was the finest dentist I have ever known and though I only met him once we shared a lot of history. He fixed a very painful issue for me around 30 years ago and we talked about his time in the army and my home town of Phenix City Alabama. My prayers go out to you all.

“ Dr McKemie was the ONLY Dentist I have ever trusted in almost 50 years. He remains the bar to which all other Dentists have failed to reach. He was a true original that I will love dearly as I do my father. God be with you all. In deepest sadness, Laura McClain Lancaster

“ Dear Cousin:

I smile for you tonight
The smile you gave me
so long ago
Reclining in that chair
the bright lights shining down on me
As you hummed and happily did your work
The work that has given man three extra decades of lifespan in just a millenia
no science has given man longer life than modern dentistry or so the demographers say

Released from your burdens now
The pains that we all have to bear
But which fell on you unfairly—more than most
You and Joanne, your constant bride
Faced with such dignity
Uncomplaining and courageous
I smile for your victorious life

The Southern traditions you quietly upheld
Chivalry, graciousness, a love of nature
Those skills you freely gave to your children and cousin Bobby
You were a prince of the water and the woods

May they be long remembered and spoken of
And God grant that we go forth
To save those sacred places
And teach our children and grandchildren
The lessons the wind in the pines
And the waves on the water
Whisper to our souls.

“ Blessed be the True Judge - heal o Lord our wise healer of all earthly encumbrances in heavenly light, selah, amen!

Cousin Mack is rejoined with his gracious mother, radiant, dutiful sister, energetic father, and greatly-missed grandson.

His long, good life tinged w/twists of Job, kind patient mien stands sterling seal to remarkable record. All hail to gracious, loving helpmate Joann - this was perfect union! As grateful kin, it was honor to reconnect by visits + calls over years.

May our beloved, warm, kind, and honorable kinsman's impeccable memory continue to be a blessing.
