

Curt O. Hall, Jr.

October 18, 1922 - April 8, 2021

Curt Orr Hall Jr. died peacefully at his home on April 8th. He was born in Albany, Georgia at Phoebe Putney Hospital on October 18, 1922 and grew up on his family farm in Baker County. After graduating from the University of Georgia he joined the US Army Air Force and served as an instructor pilot during World War II. In 1946 he married his long-time sweetheart Mamie Peacock of Albany. He was recalled by the US Air Force at the outbreak of the Korean War to train jet fighter pilots. In 1955 he went into the real estate business joining Plantation Services selling and managing farms and plantations.

His career in real estate lasted over 65 years and he developed friends from all walks of life and from far and wide. He loved the land and he loved to hunt and fish, especially wild turkeys. At the age of 98, just days before he died, Curt got his last turkey while hunting with his good friend, Terry Kile.

Even more than hunting Curt Hall loved his family. He was a wonderful husband, father, counselor and role model. He almost never lost his temper; but, if he were disappointed in something, he had a look in his eye that spoke volumes. Curt was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Albany. Mr. Hall was preceded in death by his wife, Mamie Peacock Hall, who died in 2009. He is survived by their two children, Chip Hall (Betsy) and Menard Hall, grandsons Thieme Hall, and Curt O. Hall, IV (Jade) and great granddaughter, Hannah Hall.

There will be a graveside service at Crown Hill Cemetery on Tuesday, April 20th, at 2:00 pm. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to St. Paul's Episcopal Church at 212 N. Jefferson Street, Albany, GA 31701; or to the Albany Humane Society, 1705 West Oakridge Dr., Albany, Ga 31707 or a charity of your choice.

“ My heart and love to Chip and Menard. I'm very sorry for your loss and thankful for the memories of you and your mom and dad. I'm also very thankful that I got to see Mr. Hall a few months ago. I was able to, once again, witness his humor, wit and charm. God bless.

“ Dear Menard and family:
Two great folks have left us! Mamie and Curt Hall! What an awesome couple they were.
Mamie, such a beauty, and Curt, the love of her life. Curt was always such a charming Southern gentleman and always made sunshine wherever he went. Know my thoughts and prayers are with you, Chip and your sweet family.

“ While I never met Curt in person, I still consider him a friend and someone whom I treasured. This was thanks to our numerous and often lengthy phone conversations with turkey hunting and the literature of sport being our primary subject matter. He was an amazing individual--a turkey hunter of the the old school or what is sometimes styled a "true turkey man," someone deeply immersed in the lure and lore of sport, and a sportsman who cherished links to the good earth to a remarkable degree. Every time we talked he left me inspired, and I absolutely loved to pick up the phone and hear the same introductory comments: "Jim, it's Curt Hall. I need something to read. What have you got new in the way of turkey books?" Similarly, I relished vicarious sharing of his successful hunts (at least one of which late in life was a genuine adventure). Those closest to him can find succor and some surcease from sorrow in his longevity, in knowledge that he did what he loved right to the end, and the fact that what was obviously a razor-sharp mind retained its cutting edge without nonagenarian status dulling it one bit. For my part, I know I was privileged, even from a distance, to share some of his passion for the world of field and stream.

“ Dear Menard, Chip, Betsy, Curt and Theim. Please accept my condolences. I was very fortunate to know Curt growing up. There are countless places he took us hunting and fishing when I was young. I really enjoyed meeting so many interesting people I otherwise would have never met. I recall he turned me loose on a beautiful pond at Horseshoe with a John boat all to myself while he and Johnny fished a different lake. Hog heaven! And he had me walk on his back when I was maybe 11 here at the house. Took us duck hunting too many times to count. He helped change our lives by opening so many new doors through the years. We love and cherish our friendship with all of you very much. Thank you Mr Curt for the privilege of your friendship all these many years. Clint and Will Holman

“ Menard and Family,

We're all sad that Mr. Curt has passed on to Heaven. He was a mentor and role model to many southern men whether he knew it or not. We're happy that Curt and Mamie were friends with Frank and Clarice. Rawson Circle will never be the same, but all those fond memories will last forever.

Luke 23:43 - And he said to him, “Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

Love and prayers.

“ I have fond memories of my Aunt Mamie and Uncle Curt from my childhood, particularly during our beach trips and frequent trips to Albany to visit family. They both were always welcoming and gracious to us. I ask for Gods blessing on Chip and Menard during this difficult time.

“ Dear Menard and Family. I am so very sorry for your loss. You dad was a prince of a man and one who I always felt so comfortable with as a child. I remember his kind and down to earth personality. What a great life he lived and I know he was so happy to see your mother. They were truly beautiful human beings. I pray that God holds you close and gives you the comfort you will need as you say farewell for now. Freda Smith Vittone

“ Preferring to be sure when someone is said to have died, my hope rumors of Mr. Curt heard were wrong. With so many good people dying lately, it is even sadder to add one of the finest, most gentlemanly one left.

You never heard an unkind word from or about him. I know Menard and Curt III have lost a great life support. Knowing how many people he blessed by attending their funerals, the timing of his with this COVID-19 doesn't seem fair.

My sympathy to all the family and may this dear man Rest In Peace.
