

Mrs. Margaret McKinnon Rogers

September 20, 1931 - March 21, 2019

Margaret McKinnon Rogers, 87, of Albany died Thursday March 21, 2019 at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital.

A graveside funeral service will be held Wednesday 2:00PM at Eastview Cemetery in Cuthbert, GA. Pastor Ben Rice will be officiating.

Born in Bluffton, GA, Mrs. Rogers got her Master's degree from Georgia Southwestern College. She was a retired Writing Lab Director at Darton College.

Survivors include her daughter Kay C. Evans of Kalispell, MT; a son W. Scott Roger and his wife Kingsley of Kalispell, MT; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Those desiring please make donations to the Graham Evangelistic Association, 1 Billy Graham Parkway, Charlotte, NC 28201.

Cemetery

---

Eastview Cemetery
Cemetery St
Cuthbert, GA, 39840

Events

---

MAR 27 Graveside Service 02:00PM

---

Eastview Cemetery
Cemetery St, Cuthbert, GA, US, 39840

Comments

---

“ Margaret has been a dear friend since I was 3 years old. I loved her as tho she was family and will miss her very much. When we traveled together we told people we were sisters.

Because of our difference in ages some thought she was my mother. The world is a better place because Margaret was here. I have no doubt that she is in Heaven looking down on her children and grandchildren she loved with all her heart.

Loyless Harris - March 27, 2019 at 10:37 AM

---

“ To the family of Mrs. Rogers : My thoughts and prayers are with you all in your time of grief. Take heart in the promise of Our Lord in John 3:15, "That whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have eternal life."

Russell Smith - March 26, 2019 at 04:01 PM

---

“ Margaret Rogers was a friend of a friend. I'd had some interaction with her (Lights at Love at Chehaw, etc.) She was an interesting lady.

One midnight her friend called asking me to rush with her to PPMH ER to be with Margaret whose aneurysm had ruptured. Several nurses consoled us about her impending death.

'Grim Reaper' didn't get the message as M lived not only that night but weeks more. From Phoebe she went to wonderful Willson Hospice House. There was no lamenting her fate, but more quizzing why she had not died.

Taken to Winfield she was disoriented and got up in the night and fell. Back to PPMH ER for stitches. Then after a few days at PPMH Main she was sent to Pruitt on Palmyra Rd.

She was doing her therapy and had a nice roommate. Her only objection was food. The morning she was readying to go to her own home, she had another spell. Back to PPMH ER, but this time she went to her Eternal Home which it seemed she never feared.

Rest In Peace Margaret.

Elizabeth Champion - March 26, 2019 at 07:23 AM

“ Thank you, Elizabeth for being there in her time of need. She had spoken to me on several occasions and through email about her aneurysm and concern about it rupturing. My Dad and she were cousins (more like brother and sister) and he also had an aneurysm (she seemed comforted by their both having them). Unfortunately, he did not survive surgery to repair his and Margaret said that was she would not consent to surgery. She is the last of their generation in the McKinnon family.

Kathy McKinnon Wilson - March 27, 2019 at 09:40 PM