

Mr. Michael John Vullo

January 3, 1953 - November 25, 2019

Michael John Vullo, 66, of Macon, GA died Monday, November 25, 2019 at The Phoenix at Albany in Albany, GA.

Mr. Vullo was a graduate of Mount de Sales Academy and Mercer University. He received his Masters degree from Georgia College and State University. He was employed with Mount de Sales Academy for 38 years, initially as a teacher and later as library director.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Sam and Frances Vullo and a brother, Phillip Vullo.

He is survived by his sister, Frances Marie (Ed) Ellis, eight nieces and nephews.

Memorials may be made to the Mount de Sales Academy, 851 Orange St., Macon, GA 31201.

To share your thoughts with the Vullo family, you may visit our website at www.kimbrellstern.com.

Comments

“ Mr. Vullo was the most influential teacher I had at Mount de Sales. His love of language was evident and without doubt, we all use what he taught us every single day of our lives. I think it would be safe to say that most of us are probably the "grammar police" in our respective careers because of him. My sincerest condolences to his family, friends and loved ones. He was a treasure and will be greatly missed.

Lisa Butler Ragsdale
MDS '78

Lisa Ragsdale - November 30, 2019 at 02:45 PM

“ Mr. Vullo was certainly intelligent and funny but more importantly he was a caring and dedicated teacher. He affected thousands of lives. I know I enjoyed his class as much as any I ever took at whatever level. Spent several nights , along with Kathy Tanner exploring the subtleties of Matthew Arnold and the rest of the romantics. Very fond memories.

Rich Panarese - November 29, 2019 at 07:18 AM

“ Mr. Vullo had such a kind, funny personality. He was a awesome teacher . It was a honor seeing him at our class reunions. I'll never forget giving some gun to a classmate class of 77 @ MDS Patty Flucker and he sent us to Sister office , it wasn't funny then but seeing his hand point to the door makes me laugh. May you Rest In Peace & let the light shine upon you Mr. Vullo.

Veronica Jones - November 27, 2019 at 07:13 PM

“ Mr. Vullo was one of the most influential teachers I ever had. His demeanor in class and unique way to make us enjoy classical literature was unparalleled. His love of proper grammar still resonates with so many of us. As a teacher myself, I learned many methods from Mr. Vullo that I took into my own classroom. Each of my 32 years in the classroom included stories of who Mr. Vullo was and how he impacted my teaching career. My students "knew" him too. I have so many wonderful memories of Mr. Vullo. He was a brilliant man who will live on in the hearts of thousands of Mount de Sales Cavaliers. RIP, Mr. Vullo as you join other Cavalier legends in Heaven. You will be missed.

Susan Catto - November 27, 2019 at 08:48 AM

“ When I think back on high school and middle school and the teachers that truly created memories and impressions on me, there were only a handful that I can say impacted my life. Well, Mr. Vullo was one of those! He was an amazing kind soul with a quiet spirit. To have the opportunity to be in the same room with him when he was belly laughing at something could turn anyone's mood immediately around! He tried so hard to get me to enjoy reading books. I enjoyed his company as I was a student as well as later marrying one of his fellow MDS staff, who was also one of his former students. I had him on my mind just the other day.

Thank you Mr. Vullo for your caring spirit, your sense of humor and for your love of all of us crazy kids! You made a difference in the life of this kid and adult, as well as many many others! Praying for his loved ones during this time!

Paige Davidson Garvin - November 27, 2019 at 08:20 AM

“ Mr Vullo had a distinct voice and demeanor. I am not sure if he ever knew how funny he really was, but he could always make me smile and laugh. We were colleagues for only a few years before his retirement, but I will never forget him. Rest in Peace, Mr Vullo.

Amanda Livingston - November 27, 2019 at 08:02 AM

“ Mr. Vullo was and is an MDS icon. His classic line that would always be his response to students, "That's personal", makes me smile just typing it and imagining him saying it. He was my world history teacher and my colleague and we will miss him.

Todd Freeman - November 26, 2019 at 12:35 PM

“ Michael was one of the funniest people I knew at Mount de Sales. I always knew if I sat by him at a faculty meeting, I was going to have to work hard to keep a straight face so Sister wouldn't see me laughing. He will be missed.

Susan Jones - November 26, 2019 at 07:52 AM

“ For me, it was impossible to leave a conversation with Michael without smiling. His voice and his wit always left me with a grin or walking away chuckling. He was a vital part of the Mount de Sales Academy community for many years. He was one of a kind.

Paul Midkiff - November 26, 2019 at 07:20 AM

“ 4 files added to the album Memories Album

Paul Midkiff - November 26, 2019 at 07:10 AM

“ What a wickedly funny man! We were discussing a short story by Ring Lardner and the term "spooning" was used. Mr Vullo said, "I'll bet none of you know what spooning is." Richard Panarese said, "Oh no! They're introducing foreign objects into their love-making!" V: Mr. Panarese, out, out!

Richard and I would go over to Mr. V's house and have fun discussions with Mr. V and his sweet parents. They were lovely people. Also, I went to see the movie "Halloween" with Mr. Vullo. Although, it's now somewhat of a cult classic, we both agreed that Hitchcock's mysteries were much better. Godspeed, Mr. Vullo!

Kathy Tanner Pfirman - December 05, 2019 at 02:17 PM