“ Dear Linda and family, it is with deep sadness that I write this. Of all the many cousins that " Waverly " and I shared, growing up he and I were probably the closest. Mainly, I suppose because we were only 9 days apart. He being the older. Unfortunately, time has erased many memories. I suppose when we were about 4 years old we received pedal cars for Christmas. mine was a Fire Chiefs car and his was a fire truck. Of course his had ladders and mine didn't. I wanted ladders! They had bells on them and what a racket we could make! Unfortunately, most of the time we lived about 20 miles apart, so didn,t see each other as often as we would have liked. Except for a period of about 3 months when we all lived at Grandma's house while our house was being completed That was a full house! I think 10 in all. he would come and spend time at my house in the summer. One summer, I think we were about 14, we slept in my Pup tent for 2 weeks! We had to relocate it every 3 days or so to keep from totally ruining the lawn. One night it rained and guess whose side was in the low side of the ground? Mine of course. We slept on damp blankets for a few days after that. Some of the best memories are of Grandma,s cooking. He had the advantage on me there, because She almost always lived with his family. Then when his family moved to Ga. we didn,t keep in touch as well. Something I really regret. I remember you and he visited Peggy and I when we lived in Hampton I think in the mid 60,s. it seems we all but lost touch after that. Then thanks to the internet we were able to locate you again. It was great visiting you those times when we were passing thru and getting reacquainted. Wish it could have been many more times. I am so glad for you that you have such a devoted sister, Lois and her family, to help carry you thru this time. We will continue to lift you up in prayer. I trust that soon Jesus will come and we can all sit at His feet together as one big happy family. We love you. Peggy and Richard Hicks
