Sarah McKay Hairston, or Sally, as everyone knew her, was born Sarah Watkins McKay was born to John James and Josephine Banks McKay in Macon, Georgia on July 3, 1928. She was raised in Macon with her older sister, Josephine Banks McKay and attended school there. Upon graduation, she enrolled in Mercer University and became a member of Phi Mu Sorority. During her time at Mercer, she served as president of the sorority and met a young man from north Georgia named Charles Madison Hairston. After graduating from Mercer in 1950 with an A.B. (BA) in education, she and Charles (Charlie) continued their courtship and were married at the First Presbyterian Church in Macon on August 16, 1951. Soon after marriage, Sally and Charlie relocated to Albany Georgia where he began his career in mortgage banking while Sally started teaching at Northside Elementary School. She worked as a teacher in the Dougherty County School System for 19 years and then pioneered the Dougherty County School Volunteer Program and served as its director until her retirement in 1995. She also served as director of the Partners in Excellence program in the 1980's, assisting 31 schools in the Albany area.

Charlie and Sally also raised three children after moving to Albany. Sara Banks was born on May 25, 1956, Charles Madison, Jr. was born on September 3, 1961 and Caree Watkins was born on February 22, 1964. These three children have a total of six children and now the clan includes six grandchildren.

Sally was very active in her church, Covenant Presbyterian Church, throughout her adult life. She served in numerous capacities over the years, from Sunday School teacher, to president of the Women of the Church Organization, to Deacon, to Elder, to Synod Commissioner. There never was a time when she wasn't serving in some capacity at the church until her retirement in mid-nineties. After that time, she still remained an active member and supporter of the church and its mission.

Sally was also active in the Albany community through many organizations. She was a member of the Junior League and served as vice president and secretary. She helped organize the Albany Symphony Guild and served as president. She was member of the Albany Area Museum (now Heritage Foundation) and served as president. For Liberty House, she served as member, board member and secretary. She was also a member of the Albany Community Concert board, and program chairwomen for the Dougherty County Home Builders Auxiliary. Sally was also involved in the activities of her children by being a Cub Scout den mother and a Junior Girl Scout leader. She was also a Kiwanis Wives member, and a neighborhood chairwoman for the American Cancer Society. She served as secretary for the Daughters of the American Revolution. She was also a member of the Children of the American Revolution and the Colonial Dames of America. Sally was a spirited person, promoting her community, the arts, educations, and her church. As you can see, she was also a dedicated and energetic leader. Sally was, however, most passionate about her children and grandchildren. The family trips to far-flung destinations, the Sunday and birthday dinners, the conversations and encouragement, celebrations at Thanksgiving, Christmas and New year's Day, so many football games, and let's not forget all the many times of eating at El Vaqueros enjoying the chips 'n salsa and margaritas. Sally McKay Hairston will reverberate in our memories for the rest of our lives. Well done, good and faithful servant.

One can only imagine that the endless search for the perfect seafood restaurant is over. We can envision seeing Sally and Charlie together again, enjoying the most heavenly gulf grouper with a side of oysters and their favorite beverages. Then jumping into the white convertible and moving on to the next adventure. Beautiful!

Survivors include 2 daughters, Sally Hairston Malphrus (Buck) and Caree Hairston Elder (Michael) all of Lee County, a son, Charlie (Madison) Hairston, Jr., (Cathleen) of Kennesaw, GA, 6 grandchildren, Cameron Malphrus (Krissy Letlow), James Christopher Malphrus, Sara Cathryn Baggett, Lauren Mathis, Ragan Elder, Michael Kyle Hairston, 3 great grandchildren, Cameron Malphrus, Jr, Rueben Baggett, and Henry Bradford Rakel, 2 nephews, William Lowe Sheftall and John McKay Sheftall.

“ Separated by distance and busy lives, we haven't seen second cousin Sally for many years, but Lanier has warm memories of the very pretty "big girl" who grew up across the street on Vista Circle. Her lovely obituary lets us know how much we missed, and we send our sympathy to her dear family. Lanier and Nancy Anderson, Macon

“ Mrs. Hairston was my fourth grade teacher and by far, my favorite. When a website asks me the security question "What was the last name of your favorite teacher?" I always put - Hairston. In recent years it was always a pleasant surprise to run into her having lunch at the Wild Flour Cafe. When she moved in across the hall from my mother at The Phoenix I had the opportunity to see her even more often. I cherish the fond memories.

My condolences to the family.

“ Dear cousins Sally Banks, Charlie, and Caree,

Aunt Jane called and told us that she saw on facebook that Aunt Sally Hairston had passed away. We are so sorry to hear about this. We fondly remember all those Hairston Family gatherings and reunions and so thankful to her and uncle Charlie for organizing those wonderful events. "Aunt Sally" was such a positive and young at heart person. I remember one family gathering in Albany years ago, she was playing sports outdoors with all of us young cousins and her grandchildren. I remember that pursuing education and studying music was very important to her. She was always interested in what we had going on and always interested in hearing about all my pursuits in music and being a professional flutist.

We are so thankful for all those wonderful memories!

We will continue to keep you in our prayers during this difficult time.

Love, cousin, Amy C. Parker and cousin, Carol Hairston Parker (daughter of Uncle Byron Hairston)

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of your mom! Your mama and daddy were very special to Lynne and me. We enjoyed many wonderful "mortgage banking" trips but none so memorable as the infamous Hilton Head trip and the "hot plate" we all had many laugh's about that one once we knew the Hilton Hotel was not going up in flames! Memories are special cherish each one and know that our prayer are with your family!

Sincerely,
Wayne & Lynne
