“ I was honored to meet and know Master Sergeant Branch as a worshipper, believer, neighbor and good friend who continued to teach me about the GOSPEL of The Most High YESHUA YAHWEH. Our friendship spent will be cherished until am called home to eternity. Tommy is the name he told to call him. Indeed, this man would help me deliver items to my home. He didn't ask for one cent nor did he hesitate to say, " okay gal, I will help you, but you better be ready when I get there." Before I could put on my shoes and get my purse, Tommy would be in my drive way. Note: We lived one block from each other. I tell you at age 89, he drove like a race car driver. Was I afraid? No! Because we had a shield of protection around us. Tommy was the only neighbor who didn't participate in evil against others. I and my elderly neighbor, Mrs. Wanda Mitchell misses his voice as I type this memory. Finally, Tommy was no soooo independent. I asked could I help him do his yard work, wash his vehicle, clean his kitchen or take out his trash. He replied, " no I can and been doing this by myself. I don't need your help or anybody else, thank you". My reply, " ok, Tommy, u are so independent, I know not to ask that again." He said, "you got that right, " Pam, Pam. We both laughed. Calling Tommy regularly after he fell ill, the last time I heard his voice was one day last week. His nurse was standing in his front yard and his daughter was inside his house. He asked me did I want to speak to her. I said yes. Apparently,his daughter was busy preparing for his nurse to begin her duties. Therefore, I told him I was just checking on him and would call him again. Tommy will never be forgotten as a God fearing man. From: Ms. Pam Bond/ Friend & Neighbor
