“ I will miss Acklin so very much. She was a long time friend and she was two days older than me. My memories go all the way back to the summer before the 4th grade. We were new in the neighborhood and her brothers fighting with my brother is how we met. Ever the kind hearted person she came to apologize. We became instant friends. Marty and Tom you know that your "Aunt" Carol Wilson will always be here anytime and for any reason you may need me. I love you all. Remember all the good times and if you ever need any funny times I got em.

“ I was so sad to read about Acklin in the Ledger. I am very sorry for her family's loss. Please know she was a wonderful guide for me when I needed it- in radio , in tv and in life. She played my mother whenever I needed it. She was a blessing to know and I'm so sorry I didn't know she was sick. God bless you and comfort you in the coming year.

“ Acklin, You will truly be missed at Fox 31. You took me under your wings and taught me everything I know. I couldn't of had a better teacher. You always smiled, no matter how bad you felt. I will miss you, but I know you are exactly where you want to be.
