“ I had the pleasure of singing in the choir with Addie and serving on council with her. I will always remember her love of music, the Braves, and her church. She was one of the most faithful persons I have ever known. She had patience and true love and devotion for her family and her church family, too. I will miss you, Addie.

“ Addie will be missed by us. It was such a pleasure to know her and help her keep the Sundance on the road. We enjoyed her stories and anecdotes over the years. And the Atlanta Braves have no idea that they have lost one of their best fans! What a lady. We loved her. Russell and Cheryl and the crew at Albany Auto Service.

“ Family,

I worked with Addie in the Civilian Personnel Office at MCLB, Albany. She "signed me up" for my benefits when I started there in 1982. I worked with her for about 6 years. She was one of those ladies who you could never forget. Always laughing and smiling. She definitely loved her Braves. We would talk "Braves" at work the next morning after a game the night before.

I know your family will miss her. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ We were saddened to hear of Addie's death. She was a tremendous asset to the Marine Base during her tenure there. During her years as Secretary for the Civilian Personnel Office she brought joy each day for all the staff and clientele. Tom feels so blessed to have worked with Addie. Her friendship was special to him. Her life reflected her love of God and her family; she will be missed by all who knew her. Our love and prayers are with the family.

“ Addie and I first met January 1956. We worked side by side and after we both retired from the Marine Base, being neighbors, we talked every single day. She called me at 0800 to check on me and if I didn't get her call, I called her. I loved her dearly. She was a loyal friend who was one I could confide in no matter what the problem was and was always a good listener. Addie was an example of a true Christian person. I miss her so already. My sympathy goes out to her entire family whom she loved and cared for.
