Growing up around my cousins. Also when I was sick, him and my aunt coming to visit me. He was a good man. He will be deeply missed.*

“ I cannot begin to express the sorrow i felt the moment my mother called me with this tragic news...it is as profound as the gratitude I felt after hearing from you after so long. You were a gift to your children, and how you loved them, as you wrote me in your last e-mail. I know that their grief is all consuming, and oh, how well i remember feeling as life had stopped for all us when Pop died....and there you were, lifting each of us with a joke, a story and your wonderful laugh. You were taken from those that loved you way too soon, but how lucky we all were for the times we had and the memories that can never be taken away...Uncle Al, Uncle Al...the kiddie's Pal...This name coming because you always brought us kids a dozen donuts every Sunday when we gathered to play ball. So much like who you are...a giver. Thank you for caring so much... Thank you for everything. love, susie
