“ Graydon, Your mother taught me a million years ago at Palmyra School. She was so good to all of us. You and I are survivors of one of Starlet's "weekends" at Mexico Beach.... You certainly must have taken good care of your mother for her to have made it to 100. I know you'll enjoy memories of her.

“ Alice is the last of three couples who were best friends and fishing buddies for over 50 years after they all settled in Albany after WWII. Alice and Graydon, Mildred and Bennie Lanier and our parents Elsie and John Glenn. We have such wonderful memories of these three couples and how their friendship was so special and enduring over the years. Alice was such a delightful and funny person, a joy to be around and we will miss her. There surely was a great reunion of these three couples in heaven when Alice arrived on Monday.
