“ Mrs. Lyon was a wonderful person and outstanding person. I was in her class my 8th grade year and I remember her coming in with pictures of Landon with Mr. Gregs wedding band on. She was so proud of her baby boy and talked of him often. I also remember sitting in her first period class as she told us about her sickness. She was SO strong through it all and never let it bring her down. She taught me so much more than math. My prayers go out to her family. She is and will always be admired, loved, and missed by all of us whom had the honor to be taught by her. ~Beth Grice

“ I've waited to write this as I wanted it to be right and needed some time. When I think of Mandi, the first thing that comes to me is how kind she always was. She approached every day with an innocence that is so often lost. She was such a sweet spirit and truly enjoyed being around others. Simply put, she was one of the most welcoming genuine people I've ever known. My heart breaks for Landon and I hope one day he is able to understand just how very precious he was to her. I know she will always watch over him and I pray he is filled with that sense of her presence. Please know you are all in our continued prayers.

“ It is truly amazing how God can burden your heart so much for someone that you can not help but to pray ceaselessly for them. We aren't sure if it was the time that Mandi & Jeff spent together in Byne's youth group or the fact that Mandi & I were in school together from elementary school through high school graduation~but we both felt a compelling need to pray for her~and her family~every single day. Please know that our prayers have not stopped; instead, we just continue to pray for an outpouring of God's amazing grace, His endless love and His unexplainable peace. With love from Korea, Jeff, Christi, Reese, Garrett & Addison White

“ When Mandi's family joined Byne in 1989, we became joined instantly. I can think of very few memories from middle and high school that do not include Mandi. She was a loyal, selfless and caring friend. I was blessed to have her in my life and was forever changed when we became friends in 7th grade. A chunk of my heart has been taken with her and Albany will never be the same for me without her there. Greg and Landon - know we are praying for you daily. Mr. Steve, Mrs. Barbara, Misty, Casey and Nikki - you were a second family for me and you all were always so open and put up with a bunch when you let me come over. I love you all dearly. Thank you for being by Mandi's side daily and loving her. Words will never be able to describe how much I will miss her.

“ What a tribute to see the hundreds of people who came out to show their love for Mandi. I can only say to Mrs. Barb and Mr. Steve that I have been impressed time and time again at the love and sense of family you have shown through Mandi's illness and death. I think everyone wants a family like that...that is what made Mandi the awesome, incredible person she was. I absolutely think the world of you two. I am filled with sorrow and grief, but I know it in no way compares to what you are feeling. You have shown unbelievable courage through all of this. I am in awe of you both. Greg, I know you must be terrified, but we are all here for you and for Landon. He is such a beautiful gift from God. I know God will give you grace and the strength you need. Please know we loved Mandi so, so much, and we love you. To Misty, Casey, and Nikki--- I love all of you...I am thinking of and praying for you all daily.

“ We will miss Mandi so much, she was a wonderful person inside & out. She was a loving & caring mother, wife, daughter, sister & friend. She was someone i could always count on & she always had the advice i needed to make it through whatever was going on in my life. Landon, your mommy loved you more than anything in this world. No matter how sick she was she would always pull out a smile & a praise for her " Landon Boy" for all the accomplishments you made at such a young age. Greg, she loved you like a crazy women, you have really stepped up & taken care of her precious baby, she was so proud of you for that. Misty, Casey & Nikki, Just like Ross said she loved ya'll so much, no matter how many years apart ya'll were she wanted to know what was going on with each one of you, so she could be a part of your lives. Barb you are an angle!! She was so worried about taking time from you, and all you wanted to do was give her your time & love. She was a lucky girl to have a mother like you. Mr. Steve you were a great daddy & she might not always liked the rules , but she knew how much you loved & cared for her. To all of her Friends, well i don't have to say much to ya'll b/c we all know what a great friend she was to us all. Just remember as she shops at "wal-mart" with her "list" she is watching over all of us. MEMORIES CAN NEVER BE ERASED!!!!!!

I can only say that I had a neice that died at the age of 21 and my only coping with the situation was that God had to have "Rosebuds" for his garden of blooming roses. “ Greg, Landon, and Green Family,
Mandy is truly an inspiration to me. Over the past year I have been praying to find peace with Mandy's sickness. I finally received peace Sunday night when I dreamed me and Mandy were sitting on a curb and she looked so good. I said to her in my dream " Mandy you look great" and she responded " I feel great". I feel it was God's way of showing me what she is going to look like when I see her in heaven. The verse that gives me hope is "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord". I know Many is in heaven and will be watching over you until you meet again. Greg I love you and Bruce and I will always be here for you and Landon.

“ Greg, Landon, Mrs. Barbara, Mr. Steve and girls ~ We just want you all to know what an inspiration Mandi was to us during her sickness. So many times after we heard an update on Mandi's condition we were reminded of how many blessings we have. God used her in such an unbelievable way. She forced us to look at our own lives and be even more thankful for what we have been given. None of us are promised "a tomorrow". She reminded us of that. Her faith was truly amazing. Our entire family and church family vowed to pray for her and for your family everyday. We prayed for a miracle of healing but also prayed for God's will to be done. We know that His will was for her to be with Him in heaven. She is PERFECT now... no more pain - no more suffering. Our prayers now will be for all of you - especially precious little Landon. He is going to be so proud of his Mommy when all of you tell him how she fought so hard to live. The fight is now over but Mandi's LIFE has just begun.

“ I am a cousin of Greg's and I have known Mandi for half my life it feels like. I wanted to share one of my memories I have with her. It was Thanksgiving of 2004 and Mandi was pregnant. Greg and Mandi stopped by for a little while b/c they had already been to her families for the day. I was sitting in the glider and she happened to sit on the floor in front of me so I could play with her hair. Instead, I ended up giving her a neck and shoulder massage for a good 15 + minutes. Long enough for my finger to hurt. But, I couldn't stop b/c Mandi said that it felt so good and her pregnancy had not been the best. Afterwards, she told me just how much she appreciated it. That is just a memory that I will always have of just Mandi and I. I Love you very much Mandi and will miss you even more. It was a priviledge to have you in my life. Love always, Paige

“ There are so many memories that I have of Mandi. She was one the first people that befriended me when I moved here. I knew from the day we met that we would be the best of friends. I know she is looking down on us and smiling. Her and Kel are sitting there in lounge chairs just waiting on us. I love her so much and miss her every second. I can't wait to see Landon grow up into a little man and tell him his moms little secrets. Mel and I love you all!

“ Greg & I went to high school together at Deerfield. I met Mandi after they started dating, and was able to get to know her as well. Greg, I can't tell you how sad I was when I heard that Mandi had passed. I am thankful for your emails that kept me informed on her condition. I heard about all the prayer groups and the concert in Albany that was done for Mandi. That just shows how loved she was, and how she was a very special person. You and your son are in my prayers.

“ You guys have our thoughts and prayers. I didn't know Mandi personally but I knew a lot about her from hearing from Nikki talk about her. Your family has pulled together and is walking closer to God because of her illness. We pray that you will find joy and peace through your sorrow in remembering the life she lived. She was beautiful in more ways than one.
