“ Dearest Amy...

It has been many years since we pioneered together when Jamie and I served in your area...but I have always remember your sweet spirit, your kindness, and your happy, positive attitude. You are truly a beautiful person, inside and out. I am so very sorry to hear of your tragic loss. Words fail to convey our concern for you, your family, and the struggles you will face, now and in the future. But be assured of the love and comfort Jehovah has for you, and know that we are praying for you, during this time of much distress! It has always amazed me how Jehovah sustains us...thru things we would never have believed we could survive! Keep close to Him and His people, and know you are very dearly loved. I will be thinking of you often, and praying for you more. Much Christian love, Laura Rundquist and family

“ Amy, our dear little sister, you have our love and thoughts and prayers always. Andree was a beautiful person, and we loved him because he loved you so much. When we spoke this week, it was so encouraging to hear that you haven't missed a meeting, and you already have plans to be even busier in your good works. Andree would be so proud of you. Your strong faith will help you, and we pray for Jehovah to support you as He always has. We love you so much, and we can't wait to come and see you and wrap our arms around you.

“ Dear Amy and family,
We are so saddened to hear the news of the accident. Daily we groan in this system of thngs and at times it does seem unbearable. I know with your faith Amy, that you are known for, you will make it through this. There will be many ups and downs but, always know that the friends are always there and ready to help carry the burden in whatever way you need. May Jehovah wrap you ever so tightly in the strength of his loving arms.

“ I was blessed by knowing Andree at work. He always had a smile on his face & a happy spirit. My deepest sympathy goes out to his family and especially his wife. The only thing that makes any sense to me in this tragic accident is that the angels must have needed his help. Many prayers go out to his family.

“ Amy...Words cannot express how we feel at this time for you and your family and Jimmy who loved his brother very much and use to say what a spiritual man Andree was. I will always remember his smiling face that showed that he was a very happy person. May Jehovah give you extra strength to make it through this difficult time for you...
