“ To my grandfather, Andrew James Aultman:

*There is a time for everything,
And a season for every activity under heaven:
A time to be born and a time to die
A time to plant and a time to uproot,
A time to kill and a time to heal,
A time to tear down and a time to build,
A time to weep and a time to laugh,
A time to mourn and a time to dance,
A time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
A time to embrace and a time to refrain,
A time to search and a time to give up,
A time to keep and a time to throw away,
A time to tear and a time to mend,
A time to be silent and a time to speak,
A time to love and a time to hate,
A time for war and a time for peace.
Ecclesiastes 3:1-8*

*From his loving grandson,
Andrew James Aultman the Second*

“ Mr. Bo was a good man. He once had enough faith in a scrappy young kid to concede in my negotiation debate on my first piece of real-estate and made me promise at closing to not stop there (thanks to Mrs Enid too!). My heart subsides to your loss.
