“ I am sorry to learn of another of the old-time Coats & Clark crowd's passing. I will always remember going bowling with Mr. Andy and my dad at the C&C league. Had my dad lived until this year, he would have been 100 in July. Your families will be in my prayers.

“ It has been so long that you, Elayne and David, may not remember me, but we used to live on Residence at the time you did. Elayne, you might recall the lunches and snacks at my grandparent's (The McDonalds) house. An enduring memory has been how much you liked iced tea. I have only a few recollections of your father as he was usually at work. However, those memories are of one who always was looking out for you. My husband joins in extending deepest sympathies. May God bless you with peace and comfort.
