“ I only knew Andy through friends. No matter where he was, he was always smiling. I hadn't seen him in a couple of years when I found out about his accident. We can only hang on to what we knew of Andy as a reminder of what it will be like to see him in heaven again. Andy will be missed by all who knew him.

“ My mom just told me about the guest book online. I wished more than anything I could have made it home for the funeral! Andy and I were very close friends throughout highschool. I always thought so much of him--even though he and Lee Bradley did cost me ALOT of detention Sr year skipping class.:) Like everyone has said--he always had the ability to make people laugh, was always in a good mood and was naturally good at everything he did. Andy will be missed greatly by everyone that had the pleasure of knowing him. I know that Andy is in a much better place, watching over us all! Mrs. Carol, Mr. Lloyd and family, my thoughts and prayers have been with you and will continue to be with you through this hard time. "If God brings you to it, HE will bring you through it!!!"

“ I wanted to take a moment to say the warmest of thanks to all that have signed the guestbook here. I can't begin to describe how much I will miss my little brother. All the times we've spent together, the good times and bad, but I take comfort in knowing how many family, friends, acquaintances' lives he had touched in his wonderful, yet brief time here. He will truly be missed. All of my family thanks you from the bottom of our hearts for the kind thoughts, flowers, and gifts that you have given. May God bless you all

“ Andy and I had some wonderful times together growing up. We started playing ball together when we were six years old. I remember spending the weekends on the plantation fishing and riding 4 wheelers. Andy was always a pleasure to be around. He always made me laugh and had a positive attitude. We had a Science class together in High School, which we almost failed because Andy and I were constantly cutting up with each other. There was never a dull moment when Andy was around. I miss you Andy! My prayers are with his family and friends.

“ *Andy and I grew up together spending the night at each other's house and playing baseball together. I can still hear Mrs. Carol in the background rooting Andy on. It seemed easy for Andy to make friends everywhere he went. The memories that we made together will never be forgotten. My prayers are with Mrs. Carol and Mr. Lloyd. I am sorry to hear about Andy. I know what you and your family are going through. I lost my son, Chris Jones, last year. Just put your faith in the lord and trust God, he will see you through this. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at during this time of need. “ Andy was one of my first friends when I moved to Lee County in 1993. He was always the person whom I admired through middle and high school because it seemed he was naturally good at everything he did. Whether it was in school, baseball, hunting or fishing, it seemed almost effortlessly, he was the best at it. He was a very talented person and someone who I loved very much. Many of my the best memeories I have include Andy Miller. He will be missed and will definitely never be forgotten. All of Andy's family and friends are in my thoughts and prayers.
