“ Dear family.....Just saw the obituary in an old paper.....You probably won't know me, but your mom and dad were old friends of my late husband, Dr. Ed Aderholt. Bob and Ed were at UGA together, and Ed was in their wedding. Bob reciprocated, and he was in our wedding in 1954. I came on the scene late and so only met Betty Ann then. But to know her was to love her. The last time the four of us were together was when Bob was in the hospital in Atlanta. Ed was an anesthesiologist at Piedmont Hospital then. He retired, and we moved to Monroe, where two of our children live. They were very special people to us. Ed went to be with the Lord 4 years ago, so I imagine they're having a good old reunion. I am so sorry for your loss, and I pray for the Lord's comfort and strength to sustain you in the days to come . Sincerely, Beth Aderholt

“ Betty Ann's mother, Elizabeth and my father, Turner W. Patterson III, were siblings. I remember the last time I saw her, June of 1961, when she visited my parents' home with her parents to deliver a wedding gift, she was, as usual, a very gracious lady. I have pleasant childhood memories of holidays and visits to the Wilson home in Dunwoody GA, and our Grandmother and Aunt Myrtle's homes on Brookwood and later on Piedmont, when we were young. I always thought Betty Ann was such a kind, sophisticated, pretty girl. After my father passed away in 1964, for some reason the families drifted apart, although Aunt Virginia stayed in touch somewhat. Please know that I will have her and all of you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I will never forget all the times at the Christian's home during the High School years. There was never a time that Ms. Betty Ann was ever rude in her life, she was always such a breath of fresh air, even if she was worrying about her children and all the other teenagers that she truly loved with one of the most sweetest Christian Hearts I've ever known. She will truly be missed by many. For all of her children, I love you all, and my prayers are with all of you in this time of mourning.
