A beautiful child, her parents realized at an early age that Ann was indeed special and she always maintained a childlike quality.

Ann was extremely sensitive and loyal, always thinking of her family and friends, whom she often called to chat with and check up on; much to the delight of all. Once a friend, always a friend, even maintaining a special bond and friendship with MS Johnny Wynn, whom she met when she was only four years old.

Ann never forgot a face and had an uncanny ability to recall people and minor details from long ago.

NC, Jennifer Boland of Peosta, Iowa; nephews: Jason (Denise) Newton, of Sylvester, GA, Zane

(Crystal) Maloney, of Ridgway, PA, and Charlie Maloney of Shelby, NC. Ann also leaves to cherish her memory special Aunt Hazel Huges and cousin Dallas Hughes, of Albany, GA, and her best friend (fur baby), Hazel.

Ann is also survived by several great nieces and great nephews: Hope, Cheyenne, Elizabeth, Chezney, Olivia, Alanna, Gianna, Chandale, Crystal, Isaiah "Brother" and Matthew and Carter, whom she adored. She was eagerly awaiting the arrival of a new great- great niece, Leilani Saraha- Ann, on June 7. She always enjoyed hugs and snuggles with great- great niece Londyn Faith (Lil Mama) Maloney and great-nephew Hunter Paul Newton.

Ann will be remembered as a beautiful, unique, and flawless child of God who perfectly created her just the way she was. Her family and friends know that she is rejoicing at this time back in the loving arms of her mother, grandmother and all of her family and friends. Memorial Service was held at Clay Barnette Funeral Home, Shelby, NC on May31.

“ Ann, my adorable niece, I know all the family was there to welcome you, with Jesus at the front extending his arms to embrace you. I'm sorry I did not get to tell you how much I love you one last time. Billy adored you, although in his last years he was not able to tell you.

You had the kind of love that only Jesus can give, accepting us and others as we are; never judgmental. I only wish we could have had an extended visit with you when we were all healthy. Now you and Uncle Billy are together in eternity!

Are Billy and Grace laughing together hysterically, reminiscing about their childhood? They had a special bond that no one else was privy to; he loved his baby sister so much. I know you are with them, rejoicing together on the banks of the Promised Land.

Rest In Peace, sweet niece. Pat, Dal, Kay and I are so sorry we were unable to attend your home-going service. You left us all with so many precious memories that we will cherish forever.

In Jesus Precious Name,

Aunt Hazel
