“ Ann has always been an inspiration for me in demonstrating the Love of Jesus Christ. Just being in her presence gave me joy, Her humor was contagious and caused many laughs when we had conversations. She was witty and wise. Ann also proved herself to be a model mother and grandmother and mother-in-law to my brother Dale. I will always cherish the time I spent with Ann. I know that her loved ones that have already gone to be with the Lord before her have deep joy. She will surely be missed by me and the family. I pray that the Holy Spirit bring peace that surpasses all understanding to Claire, Dale, Trey, Ellen and the rest of the family. May the love that the family has for the Lord bring them much comfort. My deepest sympathy for the loss of a dearly loved one.

“ We had the honor of meeting "Nana" almost three years ago and I will truly remember her joy, gracefulness and humility. As she allowed us to provide assistance during declining health, she was a lesson for us all. The first day we introduced ourselves, I remember a big smile, a silly Christmas hat (it was December), chewing gum, and she sang to us. She also did a little dance. People like Nana are life changers - teaching us to be inspiring, joyful and hopeful. She is having a FABULOUS time with the angels right now and they are surely laughing and dancing now that she has arrived. I'm willing to bet there is a piano for her to play too. May God grant peace and comfort to Claire, Dale, Ellen and the entire family during this difficult time.
