“ *Dearest Aunt Anne,
How much we love you and will miss you! Thank you for all the love and laughter you gave us. You were our great family historian, storyteller, and keeper of the Family Flame. May God bless you richly, as you have blessed all of us., dear one. With great love and gratitude, Carolyn and Margaret, Julie and Tommy, Cait and Maxx, and Julie, Jim, Tyler, Dylan, and Kathryn*

“ Dear Steve and Family, I am sorry to hear about the passing of your Mom, sister, Aunt, and grandmother. Even though I did not know her I know she is a grand person because we share the same birthday April 17th. They say that people born on that day make great strides in their lives. I am sure Ms. Anne Sheppard Curtis Olson was one of those grand people!

God Bless

“ John,

George and I were sorry to read about Anne in the paper. A friend came to see us today and brought the Albany paper. We moved to Auburn, Alabama in May so have missed the local news. We miss seeing the two of you at Morningside. Please accept our condolences and love.

“ Dear John and Family,
Truly our thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. I, Carleen, have such wonderful remembrances of Anne through the years as she shared with me memories of the classes at AHS. We always enjoyed seeing you both at Morningside when Helen was there. I will call her and share of your loss and I am sure her sympathy joins ours as we think of you and your family.
Our love,
Dub & Carleen

“ John, Anne will certainly be missed. Both of you were so delightful as neighbors to me and the girls and then to Leonard as he joined our family. As you said Sunday Anne was ready and we know she is healed in heaven. She loved her work with the history of First Methodist and she leaves a lasting legacy. God bless you.

“ Anne Curtis Olson was my mothers (Betty Jean Hayes Vining) best childhood friend. Through the years on occasion there would always be a story to tell about thier adventures together. My mother thought the world of Anne, she told me tonight she is going to miss her. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
