“ To Angie, Paul, and all your beautiful family. What a legacy your mom has left! She was a woman of such deep faith, a joy to know, a true Southern lady, with a kind and gentle spirit. In all the years I knew her, I enjoyed her quick wit and delightful sense of humor, and she was my Braves buddy in Albany. I will always remember the sheer joy on her face that day at your home as she held her newest precious great-grandchild for the first time. We are all blessed by having known this special person. Love, Sandy

“ My grandma was the most fearless women out there! I remember one time when my cousin Sam and I fell asleep in the living room watching tv or playing a game I have forgot which in my old age here. ha, but yeah all the sudden- these big cockroaches came flying from the corner of the room and Cama came out and squashed them with her bare feet! Now that is one cool chick in my book!
