

Annie K. Bradley Obituary

May 19, 1919 - July 15, 2004

A native of Ellaville GA, Mrs. Bradley was a former resident of Albany and a member of Morningside United Methodist Church.

Tribute Wall

“ Annie K. Bradley Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 10:29 AM

“ *Bill, Alan, Pat and Shirley,
Just received my weekly bullitin from Morningside. We know your Momma is with your father again and with our Father. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. I was glad to hear Julian officiated. Alan,I don't know your number call me 301.604.7802 Troy*

Troy Hammons - July 24, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My granny was one of the most special people that God ever created. She was a kind and caring person who was always there for her family and friends. No one can put into words anything that would truly describe the kind of person she was. She loved deeply and she was deeply loved by everyone who knew her. I will always remember the times I spent the night with her and Papa, and how she always took me to Krispy Kreme and let me eat all the doughnuts that I could possibly consume! I'll remember the times they took me to the beach when I was little, picking up seashells early in the morning, and going to the amusement park at night. I'll remember how she loved her little dog, Ginger, and how I didn't. I'll remember the time she let me and Melissa put makeup on her, and how brave she was to let us both stay over on the same night! I will always remember my Granny.

Wendy Courtney - July 20, 2004 at 12:00 AM

MW

“ You, Granny, are young again. You have no disease, no ailments, and I know that you are in a better place. I can just picture it, your arrival to Heaven. You were walking, yes walking, on your own two legs and when you saw Papa and he saw you, you both ran to each other. After holding each other, he led you to the gates of Heaven where you were greeted by those you had once lost. You are now where you belong. You are with the love of your life. You are free. And although I miss you so much and I didn't want you to go, I know deep in my heart that you needed to go home. I still feel the pain of your absence. I always will. But I just have to rely on all of my memories of us together and know that someday I will see you again. I love you.

Melissa Williams - July 19, 2004 at 12:00 AM

AE

“ We love you Ms. Pat. You are in our hearts and prayers.

Angie, Jeff, and Madison Edwards - July 18, 2004 at 12:00 AM

ME

“ We knew her to be a Lady at all times. She is still a true Lady of grace and gentility. For us, she has not left, she will forever remain in our hearts as a treasure to remind us that we must be true and kind to all.

Mildred,Lottie,John,Michelle,Inez,Julia,Mary Eliza - July 16, 2004 at 12:00 AM