“ My husband Joe and I played in a trio with Tony in the late 70s and early 80s. We always considered him more like family than just a friend. My thoughts and prayers are with you...

ME

“ Phyllis , Vicki and family I am truly sorry for your loss . Tony was one of my best friends in junior high and high school . I have told my family for years that if it hadn't been for Tony tutoring me in Geometry I would have surely failed Mrs Smith's class . He was at our house very night and mama and daddy treated him as part of our family . Tony was quiet and humble but his friends also knew his funny side . We had a blast in the band together and not only was he a math whiz he was also one of the best drummers around . Tony , Greg V. and I had great times hanging out and I'm going to miss my friend. I will see him again one day and I am so thankful for his salvation . ❤️💔

“ You will be missed Tony. I have so many fond memories with you during junior high and high school. Fellow drummers in both, of course you were way better! I could always tell when you were gonna do something special on you set as you would start chomping! It was great and thanks for being in Kathy and I wedding. We will see you again soon!

“ Tony was a good friend of mine in junior high school and I always enjoyed hanging around him. The last time I saw him was not long ago - about 40 years ago. Sympathy and condolences to friends and family and I'm sure he will be sorely missed by many. Keep the light on for us, bubba.

“ To Tony's family, I would like to offer my condolences. I knew him as a thoughtful, musically talented young man in my English class at Albany Junior High. From all of the remarks on Facebook, he continued to use his talent to provide joy for many. May you feel God's comfort in the coming weeks. With love, Joanne Stripling Smith
