“ Goodbye to my very good friend GRIFF, you were my second Dad and in many ways my first.

As I was growing up as a young lad when I first met you, I was your shadow, I went everywhere with you..We had an episode on one of our family fishing trips, there was you Griff, I always called you Griff, myself Brian, my brother Ray and my brother in law Ken.

We got stuck on an island at a reservoir in England we tried to cross to the mainland but the water was too deep and we were struggling and out of nowhere appeared a door and we managed to get back one by one on the door.

We were always talking about that episode in our lives for years.

God Bless until we meet again.

Your loving brother in law Brian

Will miss you terribly
