

Arthur R. Carter Obituary

September 20, 1925 - January 4, 2011

A native of Bogart, GA Mr. Carter was a share cropper in his early years and in 1949 he moved to Albany and began working in the service station business, where he owned and operated a Sinclair Station in 1966. In 1980 he owned D & C Gas Station, where he retired in 1980. In 1984 he married Dorothy Brock who died in 2002. Mr. Carter was preceded in death by his wife, parents, Walter Lonnie and Georgia Mae Sanders Carter, five brothers and two sisters. Survivors include nieces and nephews, Frances Greene of Albany, Faye Apperson of Albany, Jean Parr of Albany, David Carter of El Paso, TX, Cindy Wescott of Leesburg, Mary McDuffie of Albany, Betty Smith of Albany, Felton Parker of Jonesboro and Kimberly Hatcher of Albany.

Tribute Wall

ML

“ I never met you but know that you raised a wonderful, generous and very intelligent son in Ronnie. May God hold you in the palm of his hand until you are reunited with all of your loving family.

Mary Lou - February 17, 2011 at 12:00 AM