“ I had the pleasure of helping Mr. Erickson and his wife Doris at one of the local banks I worked for here in Albany. I loved that his face always seemed to light up when he spoke of his grandkids. I remember how they would take the grandkids (one at a time) on special vacations with them. Hope was a little dark haired beauty and she would come to the bank during the winter with a beautiful red/black coat with the matching hat and her grandparents would just beam with pride. He absolutely loved his family and I hope that they are able to find peace and comfort in that during this time.

“ My dad was George Ethridge, and he worked for Mr. Art at Erickson....and was so hard when we my mother and I lost my dad. And, Mr. Erickson wrote my mother and I one of the kindest and most treasured letters and how much he enjoyed my father and it was so beautifully written. Bet they will be riding in the service trucks and servicing those forklifts in heaven and laughing. My dad enjoyed Mr. Art so much. My mother and I send our love and sincere condolences to the family and prayers. Thanks to Mr. Art for always making my dad feel appreciated and a joy to work for.
