

Arthur Jr. Mann Obituary

April 15, 1926 - December 17, 2007

Arthur "Art/Jr." Mann of Leesburg, GA, passed away on Monday, December 17, 2007 at his home following a long battle with heart and lung disease. He is survived by his loving wife of 60 years Marge, his twin daughters Colleen Jackson and husband Chris, Leesburg, GA, Cathy Mann of Panama City, FL, his beloved grandchildren, Shane Jackson and Shelby Jackson, both of Atlanta, GA, and many friends. Art grew up in Greenwood Lake, NY before joining the Navy during WWII. He served aboard the LST 615 as a gunners mate. He was a cofounder of the Queen Village Queens all girl drum Corp of Warwick, NY where he was also a color guard instructor. Family members say he was proud of the guard and Corp for all their accomplishments and good times and for putting Warwick on the map. It was the memories of the Corp and Greenwood Lake that was a great comfort to him during his long illness. He was an instructor and member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary, patrolling Greenwood Lake on weekends and holidays. He was a member of the Excelsior Hose Company and police force in Warwick, NY. People remember Art as a salesman for Stanley Chrysler Plymouth. He retired in 1985 after owning and operating Western Auto in Warwick. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that all donations be made to the Greenwood Lake Commission in his memory, P.O. Box 1110 Greenwood Lake, NY 10925, attention Steve DeFeo, or the Albany Community Hospice, 2332 Lake Park Dr., Albany, GA 31707. Mr. Mann will be cremated and graveside memorial services will be Saturday, January 12, 2008 at 10:30 AM at the Warwick Cemetery in Warwick, NY. The family will receive friends at 149 Lazy Acres Rd., Leesburg, GA on Wednesday December 19, 2007 from 5-7 PM.
