“ He was by best friend. We could talk, laugh and cry together. He was a faithful loving husband and he loved me dearly. He was always there for me and our children. He would do anything for anybody with no questions asked. If he believed in something he would fight for it until the end. He loved his God, his family and his county. We will all miss him so much! I love you, Ben.

“ I not only lost my Dad, I lost a great Friend! My Dad was a great Man! I will always keep him in my heart & thoughts FOREVER, for he was my Dad and most of all my friend! He loved this Country & the men & women that currently serve and those who have previously served in the military protecting his Country. When Old Glory was presented he would stand tall and a glow would come about him! He was a proud man and a true Patriot and most of all, A Great Friend! I will miss the phone calls, jokes and laughter that he and I shared together! I could always count on him to cheer me up, no matter what country I was serving in , or no matter how bad the day was going, this I will dearly miss. I LOVE MY DAD!!
My Dad hated my adopted name so I will sign this as my birth name: Bryson Floyd Benson Jr
I LOVE MY Dad!

“ Ben Benson was a good man. He was someone that you knew you could trust.
At Christmas time, my grandmother would have everyone out for food and fellowship. Ben and I would always get into some serious issue of the day. I always enjoyed those talks.
As the evening wore on, folks would come and go, and the ladies would end up at the piano singing holiday songs.
Not being much of a singer, Ben would try to slide out quietly, but it became a tradition for the whole room to yell out, "Bye, Ben!"
He would smile and wave back.
That will be missed.
