“ *Mrs. Lane,
I don't know if you remember me from the Class of 87 at Dougherty High, but I certainly, very affectionately, remember you and your family. I am so sorry to hear of Ben's passing - I remember him quite fondly from a trip we all took to Tallahassee for a concert. I liked him immediately and thought him a really good sport for putting up with all of us girls. My sincerest condolences to you and your family.*

“ Dear Ben, you will be missed so very much. Very few people on this earth are as kind and genuine as you. What you saw is what you got! I remember the first day I met you as my neighbor at Princeton Place -- an instant friendship evolved. What I admired most was the open and unconditional loving relationship you had with your mother. I learned a lot from you too -- like not dressing my age (and of course impeccable interior design). Ben, you were a true friend who would have given the shirt off your back. Although perhaps misunderstood at times, your house was always open and you were a great listener. Go in peace, Ben, and God bless. Mrs. Lane, you did the best any mother could. God bless you and your family as well. -- Aaron

“ Miss JoAnn,
This is Ammon Smith. I don't know if you remember me, but I was a very good friend of Ben's before moving away about 3 years ago. I'm terribly sorry to hear about Ben's passing. I was very lucky to have known Ben, and we shared some hilarious, sad, and happy moments together. I learned a lot about women from Ben. He taught me a lot of things that I carry with me today. I am hoping that you all are doing well, and I am so sorry that I had missed the services, but I had only just heard about this today, and I am in Salt Lake City now. If there is anything I can do for you, please let me know. My number is (801)604-8938. It's good to make contact with you, Miss JoAnn. I'll miss you Ben. See you on the other side.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Lane, I am so saddened to hear of Ben's death. I remember sitting at the lunch table at Lake Park Elementary..he had everyone in stiches. The same was true walking to the bus stop in Jr. High. He had the most beautiful smile and made everyone around him smile right along with him. Please know that I am praying for God's comfort and strength in your lives.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Lane, Brooke and Tim, Words cannot express the shock over the news of Ben's passing. Ben and I met in 1982 and have remained friends through all of this time. Even though, I havent seen him in a couple of years, I have thought of him many, many times. I will always remember his biting sense of humor and his beautiful smile. We had so many great times together. The memories will stay with me forever and I want you to know that you are all in my prayers. I did not hear of his passing until a few days ago or I would have been there for you. I know that you will face some hard times ahead and you are in my daily prayers.

“ I first met Ben when he was a kid in VBS. I loved him then and always have. I expect that Ben had special relationships with each person he knew. We were all blessed to be his friend. He is with his heavenly Father and all his friends and will greet us at heaven gates when we arrive. Praise God for the peace this knowledge gives us. Love you and will keep you in my prayers.

““ Loss

Spring has always been made of surprises--

Like frost on golden daffodils,

Like death that bids resurrection,

Like how you smell wisteria's perfection

Before you see it.

See it:

The scent of loss

Comes around the corner--Perfumed in grief,

Humidity without release, And the persistent curse of memory.

Even the dog notices Someone is missing,

Her tail runs out of patience,

Thumping the floorboards in the foyer

By the door through which

He does not come home.

In the backyard garden

Just beginning to grow, There is the mother bird Learning

How to lean half-her-life Over the edge, push, let go.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Ben's passing. I have such fond memories of the great times Ben and I had as teenagers keeping the church nursery at First Baptist. I wil never forget, as our stomachs ached from laughing so hard with the three year olds one Sunday, how Ben remarked that it was sad we all couldn't remain forever as happy-go-lucky children. Dressed with the brightest smile, Ben has always been a beautiful, kind soul--loved by everyone, especially the children. I was happy to see pictures of him surrounded by his many nieces and nephews. As a mother of three, I can imagine no greater loss. It is with a heavy heart I offer my deepest sympathies. My thoughts and prayers are with Ben's family and friends. Karen

“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Lane, Brooke and Tim, I got the word today of Ben's death. I instantly felt a deep loss and was overcome with sadness for each of you. I have thought of your family so many times as you were such an instrument of good during my high school and college days. My life is vastly different because of knowing and loving you. So, Ben's death has shocked me and saddened me greatly. I can pray in faith that the Comforter will grant you what you need during these days. I would love to hear from you. Comfort, D. “ I can still see two cute young men meeting in front of my house, Ben and Kyle, carrying their books and walking together to Lake Park School. Ben was always one of the cutest, well mannered, and polite young men I have ever known. He always had a smile on his face. Through the years every time I saw him he would speak to me and ask about Kyle. Ben will be missed.
