“ ?Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy.? I know your star will shin upon the brightest in the night's sky. I watch the heavens to see a glimpse of your smile. You were always and will always be one of my guiding stars. I love you Neicy and you will forever be in my heart, mind, and spirit, Love your little sister---Quiteria
