“ *Betty Toole was a very dear friend. We both attended PT Gym.
She came by to visit a few weeks ago. I never dreamed her time on this earth was so short. She will always have a special place in my heart.*

“ I first met Betty in 1976 when I worked at MCLB in another division than Betty. She was always so helpful - and so funny! She never lost that sense of humor. I attended church with Betty during the 1980's at Sherwood. She was truly a friend to anyone and I will miss seeing her smiling face and her laugh. God bless her family and know she is now with Jesus, still laughing and smiling.

“ I met Betty in 1977. I went to work in TVCB and had contact with her before she came to work with us in 1981. I will always remember her great work ethic and her love for her family. I know she will be missed by all her friends and family.

“ I first met Betty and Jack in 1966 when I went to work at Turner AFB in the Household Goods Moving Office. Betty and I worked together in different capacities from then until 1993 when I retired. We always kept in touch. She was a Special Lady and Friend. I will miss her as I know all the Family will. May God Bless Each of You.
