“ Although we did not know Betty Jo personally, Leon fondly remembers Tom, her late spouse with whom he served in WWII. Sincere condolences to the whole grieving family from us both.

“ Mrs. Whitacre was a fiesty lady with a heart of gold. She would give you anything she had, and help you in any way she could. She will be missed! It makes me smile to think of her! One time I remember Mike and I were going to Columbus, GA., and Mrs. Whitacre said, "As long as you're that close, be sure to go over to Phenix City, AL!" Once we got to Phenix, we never could figure out why! We saw a rural highway, and some trailers! Mike and I were both rather young at the time. Heck, she may be laughing now, thinking, "Those boys never did know that I pulled a joke on them! LOL God bless you Betty Whitacre!

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this very sad time. I regret that I did not make it there to see Mammy during my last visit to the States for Charlotte's wedding. I know that she lived a long and happy life and that her children and grandchildren meant the world to her. She was always so kind and generous. I know that she will be missed by everyone. I am sure that she is in a better place than all of us. Hopefully we will see her again in the future.

“ It's sad to know that at a time like this we can become closer to one another.. but that is MAMMY and the Spirit of God in the works! Mammy was a beautiful individual, one who I long to have taken the chance to know better. I know that she is in a better place now, and she rests in peace, with Ga-Ga, Tommy, and many, many others. Mammy, I love you with my heart and soul, and I know that you are shining down upon all of us today. We will forever keep your kind-hearted warm love alive. May you rest in peace, with God in your righteous path of eternal bliss. Your sprit remains within me, and within us all. I can't wait to meet you again. For you are now where you belong. You are in God's almighty hand, standing near the throne, where we all, someday long to be. May the peace of the Lord be with you, forever and always, AMEN. Charlotte.
