“ At this moment the memorial service for Aunt Beverly is about to begin. We may not be there physically, but we are there in heart and mind. Jane, John Alva and I pass on our deepest sympathy to Uncle Ed and cousins, Mickey, Kathy, Debbie and Laurie. The passing of a parent is very difficult. We know. Aunt Beverly was a special person whom I will never forget. She always greeted me very warmly and it was always good to see here and Uncle Ed at our Kinzinger reunions.

She now rests comfortably and we must keep her memories alive for that is all that anyone can leave here on earth when our time comes.

May the peace of Christ comfort all of her family and friends. Peace.
