“ Bob’s smile and laughter lit up the world.
We rode the dirt roads in old pick up trucks, fished in mud holes, and walked down the road to check the mail. He taught me to cut sugar cane, call the pigs (🐷), and helped me to shoot my first shotgun. We ran through and hid in corn fields, had tomato fights, looked for arrow heads and enjoyed many good times at Aunt Sarah’s and Uncle JC’s...My second home.
Bob’s love of life and family will always be with me. His legacy to his family and friends will be in every star that shines each night.
Bob...one of the best cousins ever.
Love,
Gail
