“ Miss Bobbie or Mom as I called her did not have a mean bone in her body. She loved freely & took me in at a very young age. One memory that stands out for me is that she grabbed my hand at church & introduced me to her eldest son Ray. Oh and he was standing there with his girlfriend at the time. A tad awkward. That's our story from the beginning & we're on our 43rd year so I guess she knew something we didn't. Rest in peace Mom & Thank you.
Love you,
Carol
