“ My sympathy and prayers are sent to all the family. Bobby was such a part of our family as we grew up on 8th Avenue. I can only picture him laughing and joking (much to the displeasure of the nuns!) I know that he is at peace now.

“ I just wanted those to remember Bobby as he once was-the fun loving guy that Bill, Freddie and Jimmy ran around with and doing a good job of getting me into trouble during those years at St Teresa's School! I will always remember him for that experience.

“ I will always remember the time Bobby and a bunch of the rest of us guys were at PC staying at the Old Dutch Inn and Bobby had a hand held 45 rpm portable record player with him. The Righteous (sp?) Brothers had just released the song "You've Lost That Loving Feeling". We were all a bit tipsey (drunk on our butts) and Bobby started playing the record. All of us finally picked up enough of the words and started screeching along. Finally the manager of the motel came down to express his "appreciation" of our fine singing but it was now time for us to go to bed. Leave it to Bobby he offered to go upstairs and sing him to sleep with it. We slept in another motel the next night.
My thoughts are with you all as are my fond memories of Bobby.

“ How do I say goodbye to the best friend I have ever had?
We've all wanted to pinch your head more than once, but your wit and charm always saved you!
There are so many stories that I could tell about you that I could write a book.
Many of those stories could be shared and a lot of them couldn't,
but the one thing in common with every one of them is that they ALL would bring a smile!
Bobby,
I Love you and will always miss you. I'm glad your pain is over, and I know you are in a better place, because I know where your heart always was!
GOD BLESS
and "GO DAWGS"
