“ I will never forget the last time we sat down and had three beers together. The conversations were always good with Brian. I was just stopping by to drop off wine and popcorn and we ended up drinking three beers over an hour and a half. Brian you will be missed and just know that we love you and Nan. “ Hardly have any childhood thru Albany High School memories without Nan Murphy. Her mother featured in many actives at Palmyra School and later at Murphy house on Slappey Drive. Nan was smart so it's easy to see Brian was a good match for her. Did not know him well, but he was a very impressive teen and more so as an adult. My sympathy is not only for Nan but for all Brian's family and friends,
