I use to ask Rickey how do we stand this types of people who are breaking the laws and don,t care about the people who wrote the laws ? Rickey was to say one day all this stuff will be gone and the people who make problems for people will be Asleep in the grave . Rickey was to say lets go and see some women who need some help ok Calvin , Suer Rickey we went down to a food place where we meet a woman who was having a hard time . Rickey was to ask do you want to talk and mabe get some food here / Suer Rickey . wel rickey had about five dollars and i had about twenty , I was to touch rickey on the shoulder and say you dropped this oh ok , Thanks Calvin Rickey was to say you saved my back side and now you let me get that poor white woman some Groceys for her and the kids she has . I was to just shrug my shoulders and we got a soft drink and he was just so happy to see this lady because her husband had keft her and she had two kids. rickey had that twinkel in his eye and we smoked a cigret and laughed and he drove home after about a hour and half and there wqas the family Carl and his wife with my dad and mother and we had a hamburger from the drill and rickey was to say well if you wait on the Lord things will happen that make you to thank your Lord for Family of all types.

When you think of Rickey think of how he has no more pain or suffering like us People on the Earth. Smile and give thanks for every thing you can find love , Kindness and happy -Ness in won,t be long before we will all be up in the Great place and rember to help out all people as Rickey did when he was a Layer.

Rick and I were fraternity brothers at Emory University and later were in law school together at the University of Georgia. Ricky was a year ahead of me but we were fast friends from our Emory days. After law school, I lost track of Ricky other than to know he had to have gone back to Albany. I knew he would be a great success and he was. He was a wonderful, caring and fun friend. I will miss him. A great regret I never got to know his children. My prayers are with them and all his family. He lived life well. W. Russell King

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked for ‘Mr. Langley’ in the early 80’s. He was the greatest person to work for and with. He and Jay Walters were quite a team.

“ I will miss seeing Ricky and that Wit he had that others have mentioned. I will always remember what he told me one night at Henry's. He said a golfing friend once told him you know Rick we are in the 2nd half and probably in the 4th quarter. Without hesitating Ricky said if we are in the 4th quarter I'm just counting on Overtime! He may not have gotten Overtime but he sure enjoyed and lived life to the fullest and will certainly be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you Marci and Family during this time.
