“ To the Newton Family: The loss of a dear loved one is one of the most devastating challenges one must face in life. Yet because of the love of our heavenly Father, we know that this challenge will succumb to a finish once the resurrection hope is experienced by all those in the grave. (John 5:28,29) That hope is guaranteed because Jesus stated at John 11:25 that he is the 'resurrection and the life.' Imagine being able to one day see our dear loved ones forever because of this hope. The knowledge of our heavenly Father and his son, Jesus will provide us with everlasting life. John 17:3 Taking in this knowledge benefits us now because it helps us to cope, and for the future, we will have an enjoyable life together. May you and your family find comfort from friends, family, and others during this period of time in your life and know that the God of comfort will sustain you by means of prayer and his spirit. (2 Corinthians 1:4)

“ Maxine was a good friend to my mother JoAnne, and was always very kind and generous to us all. We are all very saddened to hear of her passing, but know in our hearts she is in a better place now with no more pain. Thank you Maxine for being a good friend. You will be missed by us all.

“ My deepest sympathies to the Newton Family. Mrs. Newton was a wonderful person. She and Col. Newton were my grandparents' best friends. I grew up watching Mrs. Newton and my Grandmother play scrabble, while my youngest brother sat on Col. Newton's lap as he sang "Frog Went A Courtin". I bet Mrs. Newton and my Grandmother are playing scrabble right now!

“ Kathy, as you know, we lived next door to Maxine up until we moved to Ohio. Maxine was a one-of-a-kind person, whom we loved very much! She became a third grandmother to Jacob over the years and we would always come visit her whenever we came back to town. She will truly be missed by many including us, but I know we will be reunited with her again someday! ”
