“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Mr. Bean was such a wonderful man and I will never forget what a great sense of humor he had! I had the priviledge of caring for him during his battle with cancer and he brought much joy to the Cancer Center. He will be missed greatly but we all know that where he is he will suffer no more. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

“ Charles and family,

Joe and I are so sorry for your loss...we love you and are praying for you constantly. Words are empty at a time like this and I know it is an overused cliché, but time really does fly; and soon we will all be reunited together again with our loved ones and our Lord.

“ Charles, We were saddened to learn of your father's death. Your mom and I worked together at Sears and I met your dad at that time. Later our paths crossed again in the train club and scouts. Your dad will be truly missed, he was a great person! He was so proud of you. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Ms Karen-- I was so sad to hear of the loss of your beloved Mr Charles. I will always remember him coming to get you at lunchtime and you two being so happy and so in love. The love story between you two was so inspiring. Please accept my prayers for you and your entire family at this terrible time. Sherry

“ I spent many a morning in homeroom with Phillip at Baker High School. He was always a friendly and warm person who was a friend to all who knew him. I will always remember Phillip as a man of integrity and great strength. A man with the courage to face life and death with a brave heart and soul. I truly hope I can be as brave when it is needed. May god bless and keep Phillip in his kingdom. My prayers are with his family and friends.

“ Your mother and father are the best people I have ever known. The happiest memories of my childhood are with you and your family. I only wish they could have met my son. I am glad, however, that Mr. Phil got a chance to know his granddaughter. I am sorry for your loss. They are both missed greatly.

We love you and our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Charles, so many memories come back at a time like this and it is hard to try to put them into words. Your Mom and Dad were such wonderful people. They loved the Lord, they loved each other and they loved you. This was reflected in all that they did. We'll always remember Phil with the camera around his neck capturing each special event in your life and always making sure that they were there for you. The love that shone from your family has truly been an inspiration to so many people. You have been such a blessing to so many and your love and support of both your Mom and Dad have been a testimony to all those around you. May God bless you and your precious family.
