

Mr. Charles Glennwood Edmonds Sr.

March 24, 1931 - August 12, 2020

Charles Glennwood Edmonds, Sr., 89, of Leesburg, Georgia, passed away peacefully at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital on August 12, 2020 after a brief bout with the COVID-19 virus. An outdoor celebration of life will be held Monday at 1:00 PM at Byne Memorial Baptist Church with Reverends Charlie Brown and Keith Alderman officiating. For safety reasons, attendees are asked to remain comfortably in their vehicle to participate in this celebration that will be broadcast via speakers in the front parking lot. Celebration will be broadcast over speakers and live viewing is available by posting the following link into your browser to view the funeral live while in the church parking lot with us or in your homes. If health concerns or driving long distance prohibits your attendance. <http://bit.ly/GlennEdmondsSr>. The graveside will follow at Riverside Cemetery and will be for immediate family only.

Mr. Edmonds was born in Bainbridge, GA on March 24, 1931 to the late Claude Newman Edmonds and Katie Ruth (Kate) Hatcher Edmonds. He moved with his family to Albany as a young child and had resided in the area ever since. Upon graduating from Albany High School in 1947, he later served his country in the United States Air Force in the Korean conflict in the 1950's and afterwards returned to Albany to marry Joy Fraser in 1956 and start a family. He spent most of his career in the flooring business at Ed Edmonds Floor Covering Co. Inc., founded by his late brother Ed Edmonds, and retired as owner/operator in 2012.

He was an active member of Byne Memorial Baptist Church and served in many capacities including Deacon Chairman, Senior Adult Sunday School Department Director, and Building Committee Member. He was most recently a member of the current Pastor Search Committee. He enjoyed spending time with his family and watching his grandchildren participate in ballgames and dance recitals. He and Joy took many trips with their senior adult group at Byne. Glenn loved woodworking and made many tables and benches for his friends and family. Once he retired, he could be found nearly every weekday morning with his friends at Burger King. He enjoyed the many friendships he made with this group of men. On most Thursday nights, he and his wife enjoyed gathering with close friends, eating and fellowshiping at one of the local restaurants. Known for his quick wit and friendly smile, he rarely met a stranger. He was preceded in his death by his siblings, Ed Edmonds, Newman Edmonds and Mary Frances Lique.

Survivors include his wife of nearly 64 years, Elva Joyce (Joy) Fraser Edmonds and their four children, Glenn Edmonds, Jr. (Tammi) of Albany, Stan Edmonds (Lisa) of Sasser, Ryan Edmonds, Sr. (Marla) of Leesburg and Sarah Gay Edmonds of Albany. He is survived by nine grandchildren, Brett Edmonds (Lacy), Paige Edmonds, Ryan Edmonds, Jr. (Kayla), Fowler Skandamis (Hogan), Macy Edmonds, Brandi Edmonds, Mitchell Edmonds, Hunter Brettel, Landon Brettel and six great grandchildren, Laylin Aumsbaugh, Raelynn Edmonds, Lynden Edmonds, Alden Edmonds, Atlas Edmonds and Micah Skandamis.

In lieu of flowers, those desiring may make memorial donations to Byne Memorial Baptist Church Living the Legacy at 2832 Ledo Road Albany, GA 31707.

“ Mr. Glenn was one of the kindest people Clay and I have had the privilege of knowing. He always had a smile on his face, just as Joy did...and I'm sure, still does. I am so sorry to hear of his death, but I know he is rejoicing in heaven right now! I am so glad God allowed our paths to cross with the Edmonds family. May He bless and comfort you during this difficult time.

“ Glenn and Family: I was so sorry to hear about your Dad's passing. He was among the finest Christian men I have ever known. We lost my Dad, suddenly, in 2018 and I am comforted that my Dad, among many others, were there to say to your Dad, "Welcome home". Our prayers are with you all. God bless you, Hal and Judy Fulmer

“ May we extend to the family, Mrs. Joy, Glenn and Tammi, Stan, Ryan and Sarah our deepest sympathies and heartfelt prayers at the home-going of Mr Glenn. Truly he was the finest example of a wonderful Christian man, father and mentor, kind and the most gentle, generous and, with his smile, a warm and welcoming man. He will truly be missed and remembered by all of us who through our childhood, teen years to adulthood, found in him, and so many others at Byne Baptist Church, the friendship, leadership and examples that formed in us our love of Christ, the desire to be better people and a commitment to our families as he himself showed. The impression of his life bears a lasting imprint on my own and many others. You shared him with us. For this we are thankful, for this we rejoice in his joy in the presence with Christ. May God bless you all.

“ I met Ed and Glenn in 1970 when I went to work for Southern Wholesale Flooring. All of them at Edmond's Floor Covering became my friends. Glenn's Christian walk in everyday life impacted the ones he was around. Glenn was one of the most dedicated Christian family men I believe I have ever met. It was an honor to know and be around him. I know that we will all be joined together in Heaven some day. May God bless all of you. Horace Keen

“ I am speaking on behalf of the Mays Family, Glen and his family was more than friends they were extended family. I don't remember how many years they (Dad & Glen) work together, seem like all my life. Glen honored our family by speaking at dad's homegoing service and it really sadden my heart that I can't be there in person for the Edmond's family. But we want them to know that they will always be in our heart.

“ The Yerbys have so many precious memories of Mr. Glenn! He and Mrs. Joy were some of the first people we met at Byne! They, and their contemporaries, were full of fun and had a sweet Christian spirt. Whether it was at Byne, at the Christmas Eve party at Little Glenn and Tammi's, Cracker Barrel, or the time they visited our cabin, he always had a joke to tell. He loved God, his family, and his friends, and we all loved him! I feel honored to have been his friend. May God give you comfort and peace in the coming days.

Mr. Edmonds was one of the finest people I have ever known and thought the world of by me and countless others as obvious by hundreds of tributes to him here and on Facebook. There was not an encounter with him growing up at Byne and seeing him many times at Wildflour through the years that he didn't bless me with his wonderful, infectious smile and warm hugs. The entire Edmonds family has always had a special place in the hearts of the Rushton family. I know Mr. Glenn's passing will leave a huge hole for all of you. You have my deepest condolences and I pray God's loving arms to enfold you and His peace that passes all understanding for you, Mrs. Joy, and for all of you as you move through this tremendous loss.

With much love, Ree Rushton Pearson

My husband John Paul Jones was a classmate of Glen's. graduating with him in 1947. Paul always considered Glen as one of his very special friends. We both treasured the friendship with Glen and Joy. Our thoughts and prayers are with Joy and the family. Glen certainly left for all of a guide as how we are to live. His life taught so many of us the way to go. Joy and family you have so many wonderful memories to share that will always keep Glen close by your side. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all as you walk this new journey
