Big Chuck, This is a voice from the past, Jim Markert. I just happened to be scrolling through the obituaries and saw your father. What a great man and great memories, I don't have to tell you that. You and I had great, great childhood memories and a few championships under our belt as well. Albany Jr football, YMCA football with Olin Brimberry, Dixie baseball....on and on. You may never know this but I'm so glad that you got to enjoy your dad for many years, mine died at 77 in 2004. I always enjoyed hanging out at your house because your parents were so kind and fun. God bless you Chuck. 478-335-0163
