“ Dear Marcia, Andy and Sarah,
My heartfelt condolences go out to you and all of the rest of us who loved Charlie. He was, indeed, one of the best people I knew. He was conscientious and dependable as well as being a loving husband, father, son and cousin. We shall never forget him.

My thoughts and prayers are with you. Please do not hesitate to call me if you need me.

*Love,
Betty*

“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to the Taylor family. Charlie and I often had long conversations in my office about our work and they always ended with him talking about his family, status of his kids in college, etc. He love ya'll deeply and did everything he could to provide for your every need. He was a good man and will be missed by all.
