

Mrs. Cheryl Webb Tullio

March 16, 1960 - November 11, 2017

The memorial service for Cheryl Tullio who died Saturday November 11, 2017 in Tallahassee, FL will be held Tuesday, November 14, 2017 at 11:00AM at Kimbrell-Stern. Visitation will begin one hour before at 10:00 AM. Brother Eddie Garcia will officiate.

Cheryl would have been married to her devoted husband Sam Tullio for 25 years on Dec 4. Cheryl graduated from Riverview Academy in 1978. She worked for several trucking companies in Albany, most recently Estes, until her retirement. She never met a stranger. Everyone who met Cheryl felt her sweet, fun-loving spirit. She loved trips to the beach and in fact Cheryl joked that she wanted her tombstone to read "Here, I lay in the sun forever". She loved Christmas, especially decorations and time spent with family. Cheryl had an incredibly strong bond with her mother, Mary Esther Webb, who left this earth just 4 months ago. Now she's in Heaven taking care of her Mama and Daddy (Esther and Elbert Webb) united with Granny and Papa (Mary and Robert McDonald). She will be greatly missed by her loving husband Sam, all of her family and friends.

Survivors include her husband, Samuel Tullio, Jr. of Leesburg, a sister Crystal Webb of Myrtle Beach SC, 2 brothers, Craig Webb of Wilmington NC and his husband, James Lane and Chayne Webb of Albany.

“ Cheryl would visit her mother at Winfield Park nursing home and while she was there she befriended my mother Ann Burson. When I visited my mom she would always tell me about this very nice lady named Cheryl. It took a while but finally we got to meet Cheryl who was indeed one of the nicest people you would ever want to meet soon afterwards we met Sam and became great acquaintances. Cheryl will truly be missed by many.

“ I went to school with Cheryl for 4 years, her mother was gracious enough to give me a ride to school. Cheryl and I shared many laughs and memories. I regret I did not make the recent reunion as she and were going to catch up. Prayers. Thank you Cheryl, I am glad I was a small part of your life. xoxo
