She was a faithful member of the "Elnora Hawk Class," where she served as President for six years. She was an active member of the United Methodist Women in mission service, and the "Young-at-Heart" Club. She served as volunteer receptionist in the church office for more than a decade. She was a woman of great faith, grace and beauty who gave diligently out of her care and concern for others. She retired from a career in Civil Service. She was preceded in death by her parents, John Riley and Mary George, by her brother, Chesley George, and her sister and brother-in-law, Verne and Byron Blackburn. She is survived by her husband, William Borden Barry; her daughter, Virginia Heidinger; her son and daughter-in-law, Chris and Gayle Barry; her five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; her brother and sister-in-law, Riley and Sybil George; her sister and brother-in-law, Bobbie and Russell Anglin; and her sister-in-law, Klara George. One of her grandchildren wrote of her as she left this world, "She has left a deep mark on us all and given us a true example of how to be a truly loving person. I pray that all of us can live up to her example and remember her name when we each feel the need for a bit more patience and love to face a struggle on down the road in our time ahead."

“ I am Christine's granddaughter. We spent much time together when I was younger. I've lived in Colorado for many years but she is still close in my heart. I cannot really express how much I care for her. She was a wonderful woman, friend and Christian. She will be sorely missed but those who know her. Yet, we look forward to seeing her in eternity, where she is resting and waiting for us one day. My prayers to all who knew and were touched by her.

“ Please know that if I could be there I would. I know that it must be very hard to give up such a beautiful, special person. She was a beloved mom, wife and grandmom. Mrs. Barry has always had a very special place in my heart. I will be praying for all of you in the days to come. I pray that God will give you the peace in knowing that your Mom, wife and grandmom has finally looked into the face of Jesus. She will be missed and remembered for all her kind acts and her sweet gestures but most importantly her testimony for Jesus Christ her Lord and Savior. The heavens rejoiced when God called her home!!! Debbie

I just wanted to let you all know that I am very sorry for your loss and the only comfort we have is that she is at home with the Lord. I will keep you and your family in my prayers.
