

Clara H. DeLarosa Obituary

May 3, 1934 - January 17, 2005

A native of Cuthbert, GA, Mrs. DeLarosa, was a member of St. Teresa's Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus Ladies Auxiliary. She received her GED through Albany High School and attended the University of Alaska, taking course in painting and decorating. She was a loving wife and mother and had unparallel persistence and patience in all endeavors. She always helped anyone in need and the most important part of her life was God, family, friends, neighbors and her home. She enjoyed decorating and ceramics and was the Captain of the Sherwood Forest Neighborhood Program for many years. Her mother, Clara Fuller Howell, died when she was six weeks old and her father, George B. Howell raised her until she was five years when he married Evelyn Perrish Howell who was a mother to her. Survivors include her husband, Sid DeLarosa of Albany, a son Sid DeLarose, Jr. of Huston Texas, a brother Lynwood Howell and his wife Geraldine of Albany and several nephews.

“ Sid our deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family in the loss of Clara. She was a fine person. Our thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through these rough days. May God be with you and surround you with his love. We did not know of Clara's death till the service was over. Take care of yourself, you need your strength to carry on. She suffers no more and is with the angels looking over us all.
